Chaplain's Message

By Father Joseph A. Pastick

I wish you all a Happy New Year! May you experience the love of God in so many ways besides that of good health -- joy, peace, fidelity to our Order, and perseverance.

In the story of the Maji (wise men who journeyed from "the East,") St. Matthew tells they brought gifts fitting a king -- Gold, Frankincense and Myrrh. In Catholic traditions these gifts symbolize love, worship and sacrifice. The Infant (divine male) will become a mighty king, who rules from the Cross.

What better love and sacrifice can we brother Knights show than to make them come alive in 2010?

Fr. Joe Pastick
Chaplain

TOOTSIE ROLL DRIVE

We will be kicking off our Tootsie Roll Drive this month and next

All proceeds go to help people with Disabilities.

Please be generous and all Knights are asked to help with collections.

A report on our annual Thanksgiving Dinner for our members, all persons from our church and friends, spending this Holiday alone. This is our 7th or 8th Dinner of Thanksgiving for the past years. I want our KofC members to know that there are a few Knights and Ladies that take their time to help make all of our affairs a success.

First: To make any of our projects a success, we need Knights that take the time to sell tickets and these are Bob Fagan, Bill Fuhrmann, Dan Poulter, George Mountford, Joe Tengowski, Tony Nalli, John Fahey, Joe LaGuardia, Joe Menicola and Anthony Esposito. We should be very happy we have men like this.

Second: Then there are the Knights, Ladies and Church members that do the important job such as setup tables, set the tables with tablecloths, silverware, help cook the food, serve the food and most important cleaning up after the dinner. We have members that provide the music and entertainment. In all these good Knights, Church members, and ladies make this and all of our affairs a success. The following fall into that category -- Bob Fagan, Joe Williams, Bill and Theresa Fuhrmann, Monica Wagner, Dennis Magner, Anthony Esposito, and part of the Fuhrmann family, Kathy and Travis Poole. Lets not forget our Church maintenance people that set up the hall. We should be very pleased that we have an understanding Pastor, Fr. Sebastian at Our Lady Queen of Peace Church.

I just hope we the Knights can keep up the good work and continue to have a good commitment to do this work to please each other.

We served 140 Dinners for a net profit of $834.

I wish to than all these good people for a job well done.

Lee Witt, Chairperson

Our Lady Queen of Peace
Knights of Columbus Council #11680
